Program Inspirational Themes

Vayu

Drawing on the concept of 'breath', this introductory module explores the creation of a deeper appreciation for our 'feeling' and 'listening' approaches to our inner and outer realities. It introduces us to the practise of unlearning. We also examine how to disambiguate personal narratives and reestablish purposeful alignment.

Agni

'Fire', the energising principle, provides us with a starting point to examine the practise of Agility and the mindset which enables this creative principle to come alive. We mindfully reexamine our neural pathways which empowers us to apply a design oriented approach to the Art of Agility in enterprise and social transformation.

Bhoomi

We use the 'mother' principle to examine the concept of time and how we emerge from our history to the present and fertilise the architecture of our future. Moving away from a reactive and predictable scenario we learn what it means to reimagine and co-create excellence through service.

A leadership journey is never complete. Setting periodic reflection and affirmation points in one's personal journey is a healthy way to review and nourish personal and professional advancement.

About CHRIST Experiential Learning Centre, Lavasa Campus

The Campus

The Lavasa campus is nestled within the Sahyadri mountains. In its quiet seclusion, the campus offers an ideal environment in the midst of a most pristine natural setting. CHRIST, Lavasa promotes a culture that embodies the philosophy of 'excellence and service' with state-of-the-art infrastructure, quality faculty and a platform where learners can spread their wings and discover their true potential. Modelled after Italy's Portofino, Lavasa is unique in many ways. The promenade and the various eateries and outlets it has to offer provide the students with a chance to indulge in a distinct experience that is far removed from the crowd and buzz of city life.

The Experiential Learning Centre

It is the contemplative nature of being immersed in "Doing" which sometimes leads to great insights. It is said that Art is the biggest Hope and Art is Experiential. Anything related to experiential or expressive arts is therapeutic and it contributes to building resilience too.

At CHRIST (Deemed To Be University), Lavasa, Pune, where we always strive for excellence in a holistic manner, having a Center whose prime objective is to provide an environment to experience and learn through a platform for self-expression only adds more value.

The Centre since it's inception in November 2022, has organized learning programs through workshops, trainings and expert talks.
